BIOGRAPHY

Julian started his career in Munich as an assistant photographer for fashion and beauty before he moved to Italy where he studied design at the Libera Università di Bolzano. After graduating he worked as a freelancer in several fields of design, film and photography. During his studies in the production design class at the Film Academy Baden-Württemberg, Julian received the Scholarship Baden-Württemberg and completed the Masterclass Workshop at the University of California, Los Angeles. Shortly after he successfully finished his studies at the Film Academy BW in 2010, Julian was awarded the Förderpreis Deutscher Film for Color of the Ocean and his "outstanding artistic achievement" in production design. Julian lives and works as a production designer and art director in Munich and Berlin.
